Breadcrumbs to Freedom

[Points Of Study]

Use this information responsibly so that you may enlighten yourself in your everyday life but implement it while being aware of how it applies and how it applies according to its relevance.

Each quote or writing comes from flesh and blood living beings, which live as Nationals living private among the land of Northwest Africa/ Northwest Amexem. Although some comments and post may be from a handful of Anglo Caucasian descendants The facts written herein; come from Facebook Internet post and each post is either rooted from a study scholastically or historical evidence carefully examined and evaluated to validate each individual conclusion.

For one to live in truth one must seek the origins of what's presented as real and put it in its original form and dissect it; then put it back together in its original context.

Construing the allegations liberally and accepting them as true, the Plaintiff is a federal employee and is a foreign national[1] and, therefore, the State of Florida lacks jurisdiction to prosecute him criminally in his pending Broward County case. He also appears to allege that attorney Michael Lynch is acting without jurisdiction and kidnapped him. (DE# 1-2 at 10).

The Plaintiff does not state the relief he seeks in the Complaint but in the attachments it appears that he seeks to have his Florida criminal case removed to federal court and/or dismissed, and Attorney Lynch to be arrested for racketeering. (DE# 1-2 at 1, 10, 13).

[1] The Plaintiff attached to his complaint what purports to be a constitution of "the Moorish National Republic Moorish Divine and National Movement of the World Aboriginal and Indigenous Natural Peoples of Northwest Amexem/North America." (DE# 4 at 3).

Amendment IX

" The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people"

Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule-making or legislation, which would abrogate them. Miranda v. Arizona 384 US 436, 125:

As an Officer(s) of the Court, you and your assigns are bound (or have taken) a solemn Oath (See Article VI) to uphold and Support the Constitution for the United States Republic. Refusal of this 'Affidavit of Financial Statement' is construed to deny me timely 'Due Process' and will be a 'Colorable Act' to violate my secured exercise of a Right. Such an act and imposition is a violation of your Official Oath of office. This can result in additional lawful remedy actions filed against those violating Officers of the Court, Under Title 18 and Title 42, in their official and private capacities. The Law always gives a remedy for the people against color of law actions committed by those who violate their Oaths of Office colluding to abridge the Rights secured for the Natural Beings and the citizens.

Bar'rister. One admitted to plead at the bar; one who has been "called to the bar." The bar is the rail which divides the counsel from the audience; tantamount to the rood-screen of a church, which separates the chancel from the rest of the building. Both these are relics of the ancient notion that the laity are an inferior order to the privileged class.

Moroccan Empire

(1) Citizenship in Morocco may be said to be governed by the laws pertaining to the same in other countries, with the exception that all persons residing in Morocco who can not prove foreign citizenship or protection are considered ipso jure as Moorish subjects.

(2 and 3) Moorish subjects lost their nationality only by becoming naturalized in, or protected by, another country having treaty relations with the Moorish Empire.

It was established by the Convention of Madrid, concluded July 3, 1880, as follows:

ARTICLE XV.

Any subject of Morocco who has been naturalized in a foreign country, and who shall return to Morocco, shall, after having remained for a length of time equal to that which shall have been regularly necessary for him to obtain such naturalization, choose between entire submission to the laws of the Empire and the obligation to quit Morocco, unless it shall be proved that his naturalization in a foreign country was obtained with the consent of the Government of Morocco.

Foreign naturalization heretofore acquired by subjects of Morocco according to the rules established by the laws of each country, shall be continued to them as regards all its effects without any restriction.

America was/is part of the dominions of the Moroccan Empire (Ottoman, Songhai) (see United states code title 22 chapter 2 section 141). 22 USC § 141 to 143 - Repealed. Act Aug. 1, 1956, repealed sections 141 to 143 effective upon the date which the President determined to be appropriate for the relinquishment of jurisdiction of the United States in Morocco. Jurisdiction of the United States in Morocco was relinquished by memorandum of President Eisenhower dated Sept. 15, 1956. Notice was given to Morocco on Oct. 6, 1956, and all pending cases were disposed of by 1960. See Bulletin of the State Department Vol. 35:909, page 844. Section 141, R.S. §§ 4083, 4125, 4126, 4127; act June 14, 1878, ch. 193, 20 Stat. 131, related to judicial authority generally of ministers and consuls of United States in China, Siam, Turkey, Morocco, Muscat, Abyssinia, Persia, and territories formerly part of Ottoman Empire including Egypt

Ruth 4:

3 And he said unto ye kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of ye country of Moab, will sell a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's.
4 And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the assistants, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, tell me: for I know that there is none besides thee to redeem it, and I am after thee. Then he answered, I will redeem it.
5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must also buy it of Ruth the Moabitess the wife of the dead, to stir up the name of the dead, upon his inheritance.
6 And the kinsman answered, I cannot redeem it, lest I destroy mine own inheritance: redeem my right to thee, for I cannot redeem it.

"Point to me the man,
Who will not lift his voice against the trade
In human souls and blood, and I pronounce,
That he nor loves his country, nor his God.
Is he a Christian then? who holds in bonds
His brethren; cramps the vigour of their minds;
Usurps entire dominion o'er their wills,
Bars from their souls the light of moral day,
The image of the great Eternal Spirit
Obliterating thence? Before your God,
Whose holy eye pervades the secret depths
Of every heart, do you who hold enthrall'd
Your fellow-being's liberty, believe
That you are guiltless of a DAMNING CRIME?
Be undeceived — and cleanse from guilt and blood
Your crimson'd conscience, and polluted hands." [2]

Moor PROOF in Ancient CASELAW
(North America is Morocco)
Banco Nacional de Cuba v. Sabbatino
While the sugar was in Cuba and was owed by C.A.V., the Cuban government issued a decree purporting to nationalize the sugar and other assets owned by American interests. Banco Nacional de Cuba, an instrumentality of the Cuban government, claimed title on the basis of the nationalization decree. Sabbatino claimed title through C.A.V. Both appeared in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Manhattan, seeking to recover the proceeds of the sale of the cargo in Morocco, which had been paid to Farr, Whitlock & Co., a sugar broker operating in New York.

Black.—Bleak. The original meaning of the word black seems to be pale. "Se mona mid his blacan leohte," the moon with her pale light; "blac-hleor ides," the pale-cheeked maiden. Pol. blakować, to lose colour, to fade; Russ. blcknut, to fade, to wither. G. bleich, Du. bleek, pale. Then as a pale complexion takes a bluish tint, the designation has passed on to mark the darker colours of the spectrum, and finally, in E. black, a total absence of all colour. The Icel. blakr is explained by Andersen, glacus seu subalbus; by Haldorsen, fuscus, obscurus, and in like manner the E. bleak is used to signify pale or light coloured, as well as livid or dark coloured. Fr. blesmir, to wax pale or bleaked.—Hollyband. Hasler, to sunburn, to make bleak or swart a thing by displaying it in the hot sun.—Cotgr. Bleak of colour, pallido, livido. To bleak in the sun, imbrunire.—Torriano. Icel. bleikia, mun-

Service calls for sacrifice, but it must be of the living kind, and not the sacrifice of a dead body. A lifeless carcass can avail nothing when placed on the altar, however pious the act may be. Klansmen believe in that kind of sacrifice which calls for a living body placed on the altar of Service, utilized by man and dedicated to God. By this kind of Service the Klansman lives. This is his aim, his purpose, his ambition, in life.

Nor is this ambition confined to those of his kind, alone. He

Secret Journals of Continental Congress

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE HONOURABLE JOHN ADAMS

SIR,

You will herewith receive a commission, authorizing you to negotiate a treaty of amity and commerce with the United Provinces of the low countries.

You will also receive a plan, in articles, which you are to adopt in whole, or without any essential alteration, being always cautious not to admit any thing inconsistent with the treaties already concluded between the United States and France, and being particularly attentive to the ninth, tenth and seventeenth articles of our treaty of amity and commerce with France, numbered as they were finally ratified.

In settling regulations respecting contraband, you will regard not only the enumeration made in our treaty with France, but conform to such regulations as shall be agreed upon by the Congress of the northern powers, concerning which we have expressed our intentions by resolves passed the 5th of October last, and herewith transmitted.

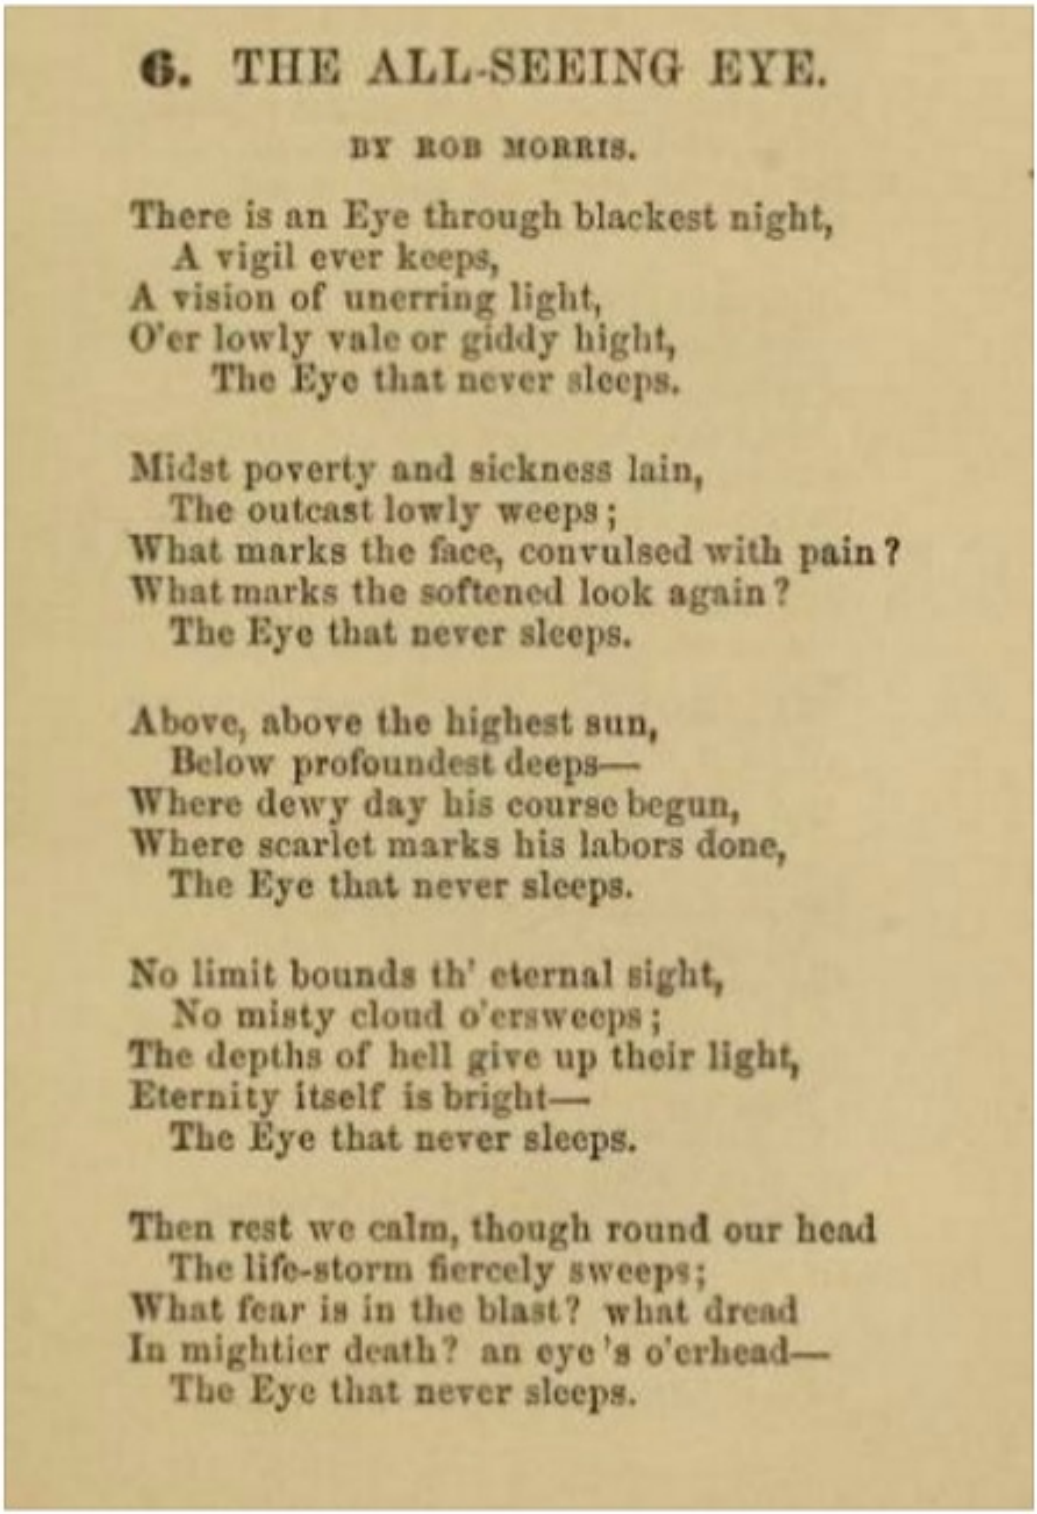
The All Seeing i



6. THE ALL-SEEING EYE.

BY ROB MORRIS.

There is an Eye through blackest night,
A vigil ever keeps,
A vision of unerring light,
O'er lowly vale or giddy hight,
The Eye that never sleeps.

Midst poverty and sickness lain,
The outcast lowly weeps;
What marks the face, convulsed with pain?
What marks the softened look again?
The Eye that never sleeps.

Below profoundest deeps—
Where dewy day his course begun,
Where scarlet marks his labors done,
The Eye that never sleeps.

No limit bounds th' eternal sight,
No misty cloud o'ersweeps;
The depths of hell give up their light,
Eternity itself is bright—
The Eye that never sleeps.

Then rest we calm, though round our head
The life-storm fiercely sweeps;
What fear is in the blast? what dread
In mightier death? an eye 's o'erhead—
The Eye that never sleeps.

JESUS.

I know nothing, I can do nothing, I do not want anything, I do not please myself, I do not praise myself, I do not relish anything, I do not learn, I do not seek, I do not desire anything in heaven and on earth; only the living word alone, which became flesh, JESUS CHRIST, and him CRUCIFIED. 1 COR. 2.

This is the most holy, most understanding heavenly ARTICUL, and openly revealed to us through God Himself in the Light of Nature.

MORTMAIN

An unlawful alienation of lands or tenements to any corporation sole or aggregate ecclesiastical or temporal. These purchases having been chiefly made by religious houses in consequence of which lands became perpetually inherent in one dead hand this has occasioned the general appellation of mortmain to be applied to such alienations. 2 Bl. Com. 268; Co. Litt. 2 b; Ersk. Inst. B. 2 t. 4 s. 10; Barr. on the Stat. 27 97. 2. Mortmain is also employed to designate all prohibitory laws which limit restrain or annul gifts grants or devises of lands and other corporeal hereditaments to charitable uses. 2 Story Eq. Jur.1137 note 1. See Shelf. on Mortm. 2 3.

The nature of a fiduciary duty

The word 'fiduciary' derives from the Latin fiducia meaning trust or confidence.

1.The origins of a fiduciary duty depend upon the extent of the link between concepts that are thought to be necessary and the point at which it might be thought that one concept ceases being developed and a new concept is born. Some association might, nevertheless, be drawn between the modern conception of a fiduciary duty and the Roman law concept of fiducia. In Roman law, fiducia was a pactum. It was an 'appendage to a conveyance'.

2. Its primary use was a direction to the holder of property concerning that person's obligations in relation to the property. The Roman concept of fiducia cum amico

3. which still exists in Civilian jurisdictions,

4. requires a person who receives assets of another to deal with them in good faith.
There are two important preliminary points which must be understood in order to comprehend the operation of fiduciary duties.
First, a fiduciary duty requires an undertaking. I have made this point elsewhere

5. bu the notion most famously derives from the academic

6. the fiduciary undertaking is always manifested by the conduct of the fiduciary. undertaking is voluntary: it is not imposed by law independently of the fiduciary's manifest intentions. So, apart from statutory duties, and other duties imposed such as by the law of torts (eg the duty not to deceive), a person might be appointed as a guardian, as a director, as a trustee, or as a solicitor, and the undertaking upon appointment might provide clearly that he or she can perform duties in a manner which involves putting himself or herself in a position of conflict or that he or she might be permitted to use the position to make profit in a particular way, possibly at the expense of the principal. Equity does not prohibit such agreement, whether in a contractual context or in a trust deed or other settlement or undertaking. Indeed, in commercial trusts it is almost universal today for trustees to profit, via remuneration, from their positions.

The power of perpetuating our property in our families is one of the most valuable and interesting circumstances belonging to it, and that which tends the most to the perpetuation of society itself. It makes our weakness subservient to our virtue; it grafts benevolence even upon avarice. The possession of family wealth and of the distinction which attends hereditary possessions (as most concerned in it,) are the natural securities for this transmission.

the state of having forfeited lands and goods to the crown upon conviction for certain offenses, and then, by transition, any offense upon conviction for which such forfeiture followed, in addition to capital or any other punishment prescribed by law; as distinguished from a "misdemeanor," upon conviction for which no forfeiture followed. All indictable offenses are either felonies or misdemeanors, but a material part of the distinction is taken away by St. 33 & 34 Vict. c. 23, which abolishes forfeiture for felony. POST-OFFICE — USE OF MAILS TO DEFRAUD — WHAT CONSTITUTES "SCHEME OR ARTIFICE." — The defendant, as president of a corporation engaged in a legitimate business, mailed a fraudulent statement of its financial condition to a bank to induce a loan to the corporation. The use of the mail for any scheme or artifice to defraud or obtain money by false pretenses is unlawful. CRIM. CODE, § 215; 35 U. S. STAT. AT L. 1130. The defense was that this single transaction in connection with a legitimate business was not a "scheme or artifice" within the meaning of the statute. Held, that the defendant was guilty of a violation of the statute. Bettman v. United States, 224 Fed. 819 (C. Prosecutors of today need Lex Remnia De Calumnia

Calumnia (Roman law)

In Roman law during the Republic, calumnia was the willful bringing of a false accusation, that is, malicious prosecution.[1] The English word "calumny" derives from the Latin.

The Roman legal system lacked state prosecutors; crimes were prosecuted by any individual with sufficient legal training who chose to make the case. Prosecutions were often politically motivated, but a prosecutor who brought an accusation wrongfully could be sued under the Lex Remnia de calumnia if the accused was absolved of the crime. In this sense, calumnia resembled a charge of defamation or libel.[2] The person found guilty of calumnia was subject to the same punishment the person he falsely accused would have received.[3]

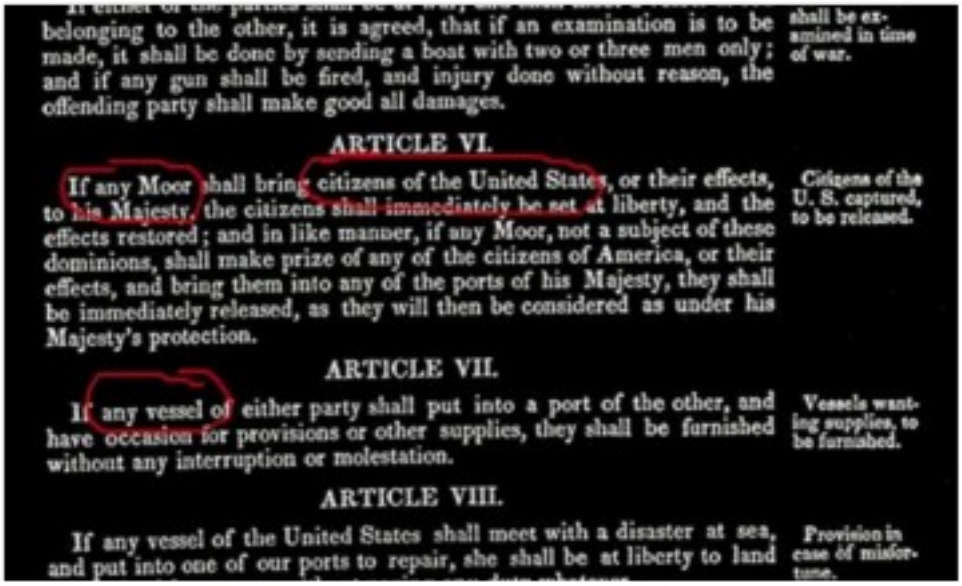
This is for those who know a little something about the treaty of peace and friendship. Then you see the difference it says Moor not Moorish. Moor meaning a nation or empire its on people with nationality not naturality, lol- Naturalized Citizens. Also there is a distinct similarity as they speak of the different people, what is it, do know?



belonging to the other, it is agreed, that if an examination is to be made, it shall be done by sending a boat with two or three men only; and if any gun shall be fired, and injury done without reason, the offending party shall make good all damages. shall be examined in time of war.

ARTICLE VI.

If any Moor shall bring citizens of the United States, or their effects, to his Majesty, the citizens shall immediately be set at liberty, and the effects restored; and in like manner, if any Moor, not a subject of these dominions, shall make prize of any of the citizens of America, or their effects, and bring them into any of the ports of his Majesty, they shall be immediately released, as they will then be considered as under his Majesty's protection. Citizens of the U. S. captured, to be released.

ARTICLE VII.

If any vessel of either party shall put into a port of the other, and have occasion for provisions or other supplies, they shall be furnished without any interruption or molestation. Vessels wanting supplies, to be furnished.

ARTICLE VIII.

If any vessel of the United States shall meet with a disaster at sea, and put into one of our ports to repair, she shall be at liberty to land Provision in case of misfortune.

Tram Dickerson El Moorish is a demonymic

List of adjectival and demonymic forms for countries and nations

The following is a list of adjectival forms of countries and nations in English and their demonymic equivalents. A country adjective describes something as being from that country, for example, "Italian cuisine" is "cuisine of Italy". A country demonym denotes the people or the inhabitants of or from there, for example, "Germans" are people of or from Germany. Note: Demonyms are given in plural forms. Singular forms simply remove the final s or, in the case of -ese endings, are the same as the plural forms. The ending -men has feminine equivalent -women (e.g. an Irishman and a Bonum diem Moorish Law men and woman... don't they always say the defendant have a "nexus" with the state?

Lex Poetelia Papiria

The lex Poetelia Papiria was a law passed in Ancient Rome that abolished the contractual form of Nexum, or debt bondage.[1] Livy dates the law in 326 BC, during the third consulship of Gaius Poetelius Libo Visolus,[2] whereas

Nexum

Nexum was a debt bondage contract in the early Roman Republic. The debtor pledged his person as collateral should he default on his loan. Nexum was abolished by the Lex Poetelia Papiria in 326 BC.

Despite constraining a free person's liberty (libertas), nexum contracts were a preferable alternative to slavery for debtors, since slaves could be sold or killed by their masters at will. Though nexi were often beaten and abused by their obaerati, they maintained (if sometimes only in theory) their Roman citizenship and rights.[8] Creditors might profit more from a nexum contract, as they received a motivated

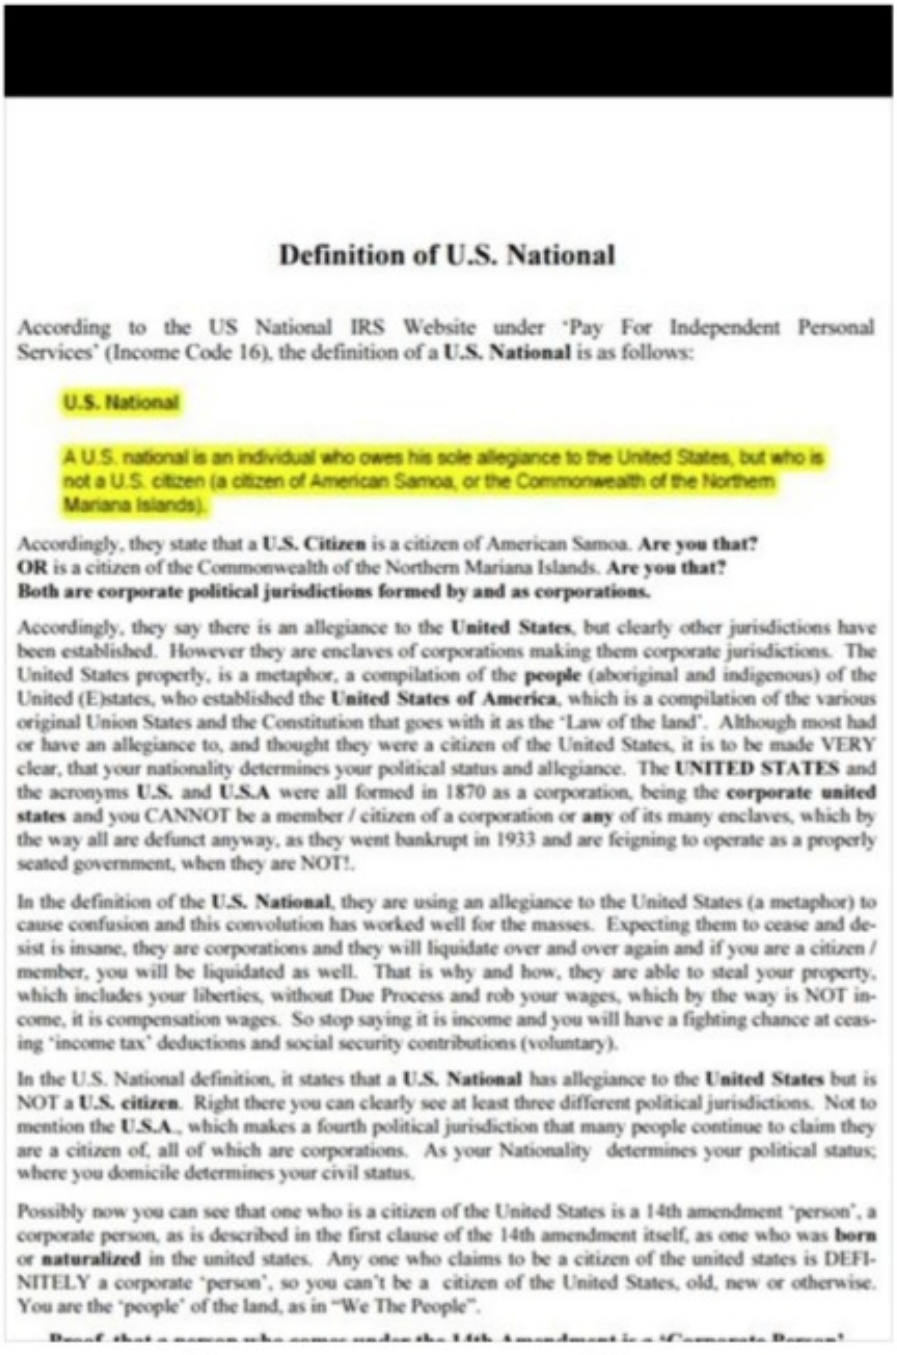
This is dedicated to ALL those who are misrepresenting us, lol they mean U.S. I ask which United States, as there are a United States everywhere? You have the the United States of England, a United States of Mexico etc.. which all still don't deal with nationality.



Definition of U.S. National

According to the US National IRS Website under 'Pay For Independent Personal Services' (Income Code 16), the definition of a U.S. National is as follows:

> U.S. National
> A U.S. national is an individual who owes his sole allegiance to the United States, but who is not a U.S. citizen (a citizen of American Samoa, or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands).

Accordingly, they state that a U.S. Citizen is a citizen of American Samoa. Are you that?
OR is a citizen of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands. Are you that?
Both are corporate political jurisdictions formed by and as corporations.

Accordingly, they say there is an allegiance to the United States, but clearly other jurisdictions have been established. However they are enclaves of corporations making them corporate jurisdictions. The United States properly, is a metaphor, a compilation of the people (aboriginal and indigenous) of the United (E)states, who established the United States of America, which is a compilation of the various original Union States and the Constitution that goes with it as the 'Law of the land'. Although most had or have an allegiance to, and thought they were a citizen of the United States, it is to be made VERY clear, that your nationality determines your political status and allegiance. The UNITED STATES and the acronyms U.S. and U.S.A were all formed in 1870 as a corporation, being the corporate united states and you CANNOT be a member / citizen of a corporation or any of its many enclaves, which by the way all are defunct anyway, as they went bankrupt in 1933 and are feigning to operate as a properly seated government, when they are NOT!.

In the definition of the U.S. National, they are using an allegiance to the United States (a metaphor) to cause confusion and this convolution has worked well for the masses. Expecting them to cease and desist is insane, they are corporations and they will liquidate over and over again and if you are a citizen / member, you will be liquidated as well. That is why and how, they are able to steal your property, which includes your liberties, without Due Process and rob your wages, which by the way is NOT income, it is compensation wages. So stop saying it is income and you will have a fighting chance at ceasing 'income tax' deductions and social security contributions (voluntary).

In the U.S. National definition, it states that a U.S. National has allegiance to the United States but is NOT a U.S. citizen. Right there you can clearly see at least three different political jurisdictions. Not to mention the U.S.A., which makes a fourth political jurisdiction that many people continue to claim they are a citizen of, all of which are corporations. As your Nationality determines your political status; where you domicile determines your civil status.

Possibly now you can see that one who is a citizen of the United States is a 14th amendment 'person', a corporate person, as is described in the first clause of the 14th amendment itself, as one who was born or naturalized in the united states. Any one who claims to be a citizen of the united states is DEFINITELY a corporate 'person', so you can't be a citizen of the United States, old, new or otherwise. You are the 'people' of the land, as in "We The People".

Proof that a person who comes under the 14th Amendment is a 'Corporate Person'

Ministry (government department) A ministry is a governmental organization, headed by a minister, that is meant to manage a specific sector of public administration. Ministries have a bureaucratic structure. ... Ministries called the Ministry of Education or similar are also common.

Religion is NOT what we were taught!!!!

CONTRACT

CONTRACT. A promissory agreement between two or more persons that creates, modifies, or destroys a legal relation. Buffalo Pressed Steel Co. v. Kirwan, 138 Md. 60, 113 A. 628, 630; Mexican Petroleum Corporation of Louisiana v. North German Lloyd, D.C.La., 17 F.2d 113, 114.

An agreement, upon sufficient consideration, to do or not to do a particular thing. 2 Bl.Comm. 442; 2 Kent, Comm. 449. Justice v. Lang, 42 N.Y. 496, 1 Am.Rep. 576; Rabon v. State Finance Corporation, 203 S.C. 183, 26 S.E.2d 501, 502.

An agreement between two or more parties, preliminary step in making of which is offer by one and acceptance by other, in which minds of parties meet and concur in understanding of terms. Lee v. Travelers' Ins. Co. of Hartford, Conn., 173 S.C. 185, 175 S.E. 429.

A deliberate engagement between competent parties, upon a legal consideration, to do, or abstain from doing, some act. Wharton; Smith v. Thornhill, Tex.Com.App. 25 S.W.2d 597, 599.

It is agreement creating obligation, in which there must be competent parties, subject-matter, legal consideration, mutuality of agreement, and mutuality of obligation, and agreement must not be so vague or uncertain that terms are not ascertainable. H. Liebes & Co. v. Klengenberg, C.C.A.Cal., 23 F.2d 611, 612.

A contract or agreement is either where a promise is made on one side and assented to on the other; or where two or more persons enter into engagement with each other by a promise on either side. 2 Steph.Comm. 54.

The writing which contains the agreement of parties, with the terms and conditions, and which serves as a proof of the obligation.

The Tuskegee syphilis experiment was done between 1932 and 1972 by the US Public Health Service in Macon County, Alabama. The main purpose of this experiment was to observe the natural progression of untreated syphilis in rural African-American men. This was done under the guise of receiving free health care from the United States government.

I was reading earlier and it hit me that this is the one of the reasons why The Temples call Moors who study LAW sovereign citizens. Remind you that a lot of the reports were false and very misleading. Moors who are in this group who study LAW know this to be true. Anyone who talks about governing themselves as a nation, should know LAW- Allah. So for the record the sovereign citizen movement is not the same as The Moorish Divine and National Movement. To have movement you must have action.

If you are a Moor read this and if you still have a rebuttal, I will know then where in the problems lie. It will be with the ones who call themselves naturalized. As they argue that this is not the Prophets teaching etc...but for those who want to read the rest of this to get standing click the link for the pdf. A Response To

SOUTHERN POVERTY LAW CENTER'S
Finch and Flowers 'OPINION' Regarding Sovereignty

By Rahsmariah Bey, Publisher R.V. Bey Publications

This is the third report we have seen over the past 3 years from the Southern Poverty Law Center. We urge you all to keep in mind that these are their opinions and are not in fact Law!

Quote from the Poverty Report:

The effort by Flowers and Finch comes as the number of sovereigns expands rapidly along with the larger anti-government "Patriot" movement.

... the detectives realized their county had become a destination for "sovereign citizens" — particularly self-proclaimed followers of Noble Drew Ali, a black separatist from the early 20th century whose "Moorish" ideology has been selectively adopted by many sovereigns.

Finch: "So we started training the registrar of deeds, the clerks of court, our district court and Superior Court judges, our assistant district attorneys. We even trained defense attorneys so they would understand, you know, this is not just a crazy person who they are representing, [that] this is actually somebody who believes that the government is illegitimate and this is why they believe that."
—End Quotes.

Moors are by blood, jus sanguine, the true aboriginal people of the land, the American National, which by that mere fact they are in fact the ONLY sovereign. They are not "Black sovereigns, nor is Noble Drew Ali a black separatist, and they are not a part of the Patriot Movement. More so over, neither the Patriot group or Moors are acting in an anti-government manner. It is the actions of Finch and Flowers and any other citizen who colludes with them that are in fact anti-government. To say that Moors are anti-government or that they are Black Sovereigns is a Misrepresentation and by it being printed, is not only slanderous, it is Libel. Finch and Flowers are descendants of naturalized citizens themselves and do not have any political rights or power here, except to follow the Law of the Land as Public Servants and Trustees. Their clear intent and organized mission to maintain violations of the people's rights is Treasonous. For that reason they ought to continue to be made responsible for their Misrepresentation and abuse of their limited authority, if they have any at all. Otherwise they are on a personal mission and still they must be held accountable for their infractions and for breaking the law.

It is clear that they are attempting to muddy up the waters of "sovereignty" as to what it is and what it is not. Europeans could NEVER be sovereigns here. Sovereignty comes with nationality, it does NOT stand alone. Therefore, there is no validity to a so-called "Black Sovereign or "Black Sovereignty Movement", nor is there validity to the Patriot group who attempts to be sovereigns. The only sovereign here is the Moor American National. Of course then, a people of European descent would like for this to be their 'homeland' void of sovereigns as they cannot be the sovereign and they don't want you to claim your nationality, thus your sovereign status. That is why they get upset when one proclaims their Nationality as that of a Moor. A Moor does NOT have to claim sovereignty, they have to declare their Nationality, and be themselves, the heirs apparent. Upon declaring their nationality and being themselves, sovereignty is bestowed. This puts a clear light on why those who have been usurping and violating the rights of the natural people, do not want to give up the ghost now, as they would then find themselves without food on their plate, without any bodies to rob liberties from. This is evident and translates as them being sued for those violations of law. Their robbing of the people is why they have been prosperous and it is a commission of piracy.

Piracy: A robbery or forceable depredation on the high seas, without lawful authority, done animo furandi in the spirit and intention of universal hostility.
(Note: Animo means 'with intent', and furandi means 'an intention of stealing').

benefit.
21. 1933-1940: The banks took full advantage of the "national emergency" they created and the Congress did everything the bankers required: The Sheppard-Towner Act, the Buck Act, the Alien Registration Act, the Social Security Act(s), the Emergency Banking Act, and more. The purpose of all this was to lay claim to the labor and the assets of the States and People of the Continental United States by securing "private contracts" with them, enabling the perpetrators to "represent them" and to set up corporations "in their names". Hundreds of millions of Americans were told that they "had to" sign up for Social Security and have a Social Security Number in order to have a job, that it was "the Law" and that "Congress had passed it" and so, believing it to be a lawful government mandate – when in fact it was a corporate fraud scheme – they were subscribed en mass. Remembering now the actions of the Corporate Congress in 1862 redefining the word "person" to mean "corporation" for federal purposes, and their later claim made in 1871 to hold ownership interest in all United States corporations and seeing that their actions from 1933 to 1940 resulted in redefining the estates of living Americans as public trusts—that is, as a form of corporation— you can see that the "Corporate Congress" has claimed to own living Americans as assets belonging to their corporation and has also claimed to control and own their private assets — in flagrant violation of the Geneva Convention Protocols Volume II, Article 3, and in equally flagrant violation of the 1926 International Conventions on Slavery, and in violation of every lawful and moral duty, commercial contract, and trust indenture owed to the Continental United States and the Labyrinthine People. It is also apparent that all of this – every claim, every salvage lien, every title to land and property held under color of law – being held against the Continental United States and the living civilian inhabitants of the Continental United States, is pure, self-interested commercial fraud created and perpetuated under conditions of semantic deceit, constructive fraud, misrepresentation, and mischaracterization by the management of the Federal United States, the various governmental services corporations doing business as some form of "United States" and the British Government.
22. 1940-present: Among the first actions to be taken by the criminals was to "register" all live births. This established a claim of ownership on the baby and his or her estate, benefiting the "State of Ohio" or other "Federal State franchise". This act of identity theft exercised via an undisclosed and forced contract with the Mother of the child, allowed each "State" franchise to control the name and the property of the baby. The perpetrators promptly set up new "State franchises" benefiting themselves using names styled like this: "Joseph Quincy Public" and new "Municipal franchises" set up under the auspices of the Washington DC Municipality using NAMES styled like this: "JOHN QUINCY PUBLIC". The only purpose for creating these franchises structured as various kinds of trusts – was to act as a means for the privately owned governmental services corporations to hypothecate debt against the labor of the living people and their private property assets and to exercise control over them amounting to slavery.

Understanding the Religious Corporation Act 805.

"The Charter of the Temple "IS" the Mandate. The Charter for the Temples have the words "Charter Warrant & Dispensation" on it. In International law, Charters are seen as Treaties. Through some investigation some Moors did, there is only three organizations that has "Charter Warrant & Dispensation" on their charter. That's the Vatican, the Masons and the Moorish Science Temple of The Labyrinth. The Vatican copied what Prophet Noble Drew Ali did with setting up the Moorish Science Temple of The Labyrinth. After 1963, no other organization was able to do what the Vatican and the Moorish Science Temple of The Labyrinth did." - Dr Alim El-Bey

What did the Vatican copy?
Lateran Treaty

The Vatican City State came into existence as a sovereign nation in 1929 [after Noble Drew Ali] with the signing of the Lateran Treaty between the Holy See (Religion /Church) and the Kingdom of Italy (State).

They copied Noble Drew Ali's steps of combing Church and State making it a sovereign Nation.

Re-member the Noble Drew Ali first had the Moorish (Holy) Temple of Science (of the World) (civic organization)and then he adopted as its corporate name the Moorish Science Temple of The Labyrinth (foreign corporation / religious organization) under the religious charter. The Prophet put our movement under the protection of the First Amendment of the virginal Constitution for the united States 'Republic' of (North) The Labyrinth.

The Vatican City State did the samething!

The Vatican City State (VCS), an enclave of Rome and a sovereign monarchical-sacerdotal state comprising slightly less than nine hundred individuals, presents a difficult challenge for the legal researcher wishing to separate the affairs of the "city state" from those of the "Papist Church."

The VCS is a distinct legal jurisdiction, but the inexorable intertwining of the Church—in the form of the Holy See—with the VCS only serves to obfuscate the jurisdictional boundaries that lie between church and city state.

The pope is also head of state of Vatican City, a sovereign city-state entirely enclaved within Rome.

Noble Drew Ali was the head of state of the Moorish Divine (Church) and National (State) Movement.

Church is also a Congress
State is a Senate or Body

senate (n.)

c. 1200, "legal and administrative body of ancient Rome," from Old French senat or Latin senatus "highest council of the state in ancient Rome," literally "council of elders," from senex (genitive senis) "old man, old" (from PIE root *sen- "old"). Attested from late 14c. in reference to governing bodies of free cities in Europe; of national governing bodies from 1550s; specific sense of upper house of U.S. legislature is recorded from 1775.

http://www.nyulawglobal.org/globalex/Vatican.html

In the picture below you will see the Prophet setup two bodies and they are to meet for elections and create laws for the Moorish Divine AND National Movement.

The reason the The Labyrinth wants to keep the separation of Church and State is to keep Natural Law (Rights) away from the people and only use Enacted Statues (Privileges) against the People / Republic.

Moorish Americans Are A Sovereign Nation!

by Dr. Elihu N. Pleasant-Bey, DM, Swift Angel #1

January 8 to 15 was the Moorish American Holy Day Week. What is the true meaning of this noble week and who declared this era into existence? The Holy and Illustrious Prophet Noble Drew Ali was born January 8, 1886, amongst His sleeping Moorish American Nation.

During those days all Moors born in the United States were State-certified to be "commercial property" under the "All Persons Born" Clause of the 14th Amendment! Drew Ali is pictured holding the Flags of Morocco and United States. Normally whenever Drew Ali displayed either flag they were hung in the science of national distress or weakness (upside down or backward).

Prophet Noble Drew Ali (El Hajj Sharif Abdul Ali) proclaiming the Moorish Americans as a Sovereign Nation in Havana Cuba.

When Noble Drew Ali arrived and registered in Havana, He autographed His High Name of "El Hajj Sharif Abdul Ali" given to Him by Sultan Abdul Aziz Ibu of the Saudi Family, upon completing the Pilgrimage in the Holy City of Mecca, Saudi Arabia. That event occurred during 1912, shortly after receiving the Kemetian Adept Degree of "Prophet" from the Noblest Authorities of the Ancient Egyptian Order.

It was there He was bestowed the name of "Faithful" (Moslem) in order to be accepted into the Holy City of Mecca. Was Noble Drew Ali ever a Mason? No. The accuracy of the above dates of His Divine Ministry on earth alone dispels all western rumors, begun by scandalmongers, about Noble Drew Ali being a Western Freemason. A Mastermind yes – a Mason no. Further proof: He was 16 years old in 1902 when He left the USA and was five years too young to join a Masonic Lodge.

Ten years later, by the time Ali returned as a Holy Prophet, He was too Angelic and All-Knowing to cut down to masonry. No Angel can be made into a Mason. But by diluting Drew Ali's image into the nationless Negro Lodges, His western haters would appear to be successful distorting the sacredness of His Prophethood in the minds of His people. Prophets are the Will of the Great God and, therefore, can't be confined by the mere oaths of carnal man.

Truth is told - "If you are honest, oaths are unnecessary." Of course the insertion of these Grand Lodge "Principles of segregation" began after Drew Ali departed out of flesh, (July 20, 1929). The clandestine infiltration of the western Masonic orders would create massive confusion and self-hatred within the ranks of the Moors. As members, His flock would be scattered, Temples disunited and the National Constitution of His government would be overthrown for nearly a century after the Prophet left His body.

Because of the influence of Western Freemasonry, Noble Drew Ali's message to the world has often been confined away from the public by the strictest of secrecy. Under a disguise of religious memberships § 112. Double Personality.

It often happens that a single human being possesses a double personality. He is one man, but two persons. Unus homo, it is said, plures personas sustinet. In one capacity, or in one right as English lawyers say, he may have legal relations with himself in his other capacity or right. He may contract with himself, or owe money to himself, or transfer property to himself. Every contract, debt, obligation, or assignment requires two persons; but those two persons may be the same human being. This double personality exists chiefly in the case of trusteeship. A trustee is, as we have seen, a person in whom the property of another is nominally, i.e., technically, vested, to the intent that he may represent that other in the management and protection of it. A trustee, therefore, is for many purposes two persons in the eye of the law. In right of his beneficiary he is one person, and in his own right he is another. In the one capacity he may owe money to himself in the other. In the one capacity he may own an encumbrance over property which belongs to himself

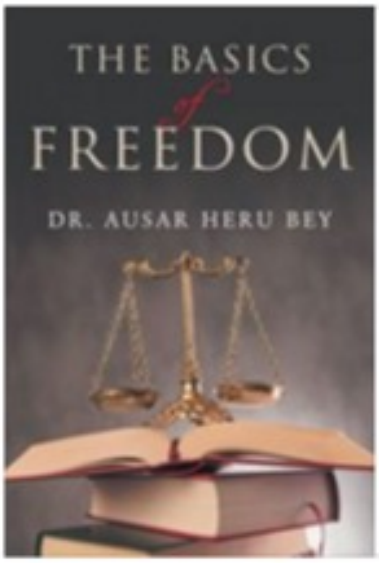
I was accused of being an agent by a women disguising herself with fake hair. It has been the habit of the government agents to deflect by accusing others of being agent. I will not tolerate any sort of slander! Slandering an individual can cause vital ramifications for that individual. I have contracts that can be effected by such allegations. So I suggest you watch what you state about people. Well, this is some of what the internet states about me:



Author Dr. Ausar Heru Bey's new book "The Basics of Freedom" is a simplified but important discussion on the foundations of freedom for United States citizens.

A Court Decision is No Law at All

A COURT DECISION IS NOT A LAW! Do you understand that? Roe v Wade is not the law of the land. Roe v Wade was an opinion handed down by judges. Judges and courts do not make laws, they merely render opinions.

"All laws which are repugnant to the Constitution are null and void." - Marbury v Madison 1803.

LICENSING LIBERTY

"No state shall convert a liberty into a license, and charge a fee therefore." (Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105)

"If the State converts a right (liberty) into a privilege, the citizen can ignore the license and fee and engage in the right (liberty) with impunity." (Shuttlesworth v. City of Birmingham, Alabama, 373 U.S. 262)

INTERNATIONAL LAW — NATIONALITY — CONDITION OF STATELESSNESS. — The plaintiff was born in Prussia. Becoming of age, he obtained his release from Prussian nationality, and made his home in England. He did not become a naturalized British subject. After twenty years' domicil in England he was interned, and, in 1918, deported. After the war, the property of "German nationals" situate within the territories of the British Crown became subject to certain charges (TREATY OF VERSAILLES, Part X, § iv, Annex, clause 4). The plaintiff sues the Public Trustee and the Attorney-General for a declaration that he was not a German national within the meaning of the Treaty. Held, that the declaration be granted. Stoeck v. Public Trustee, [1921] 2 Ch. 67.

On principles of international law, the municipal law of each state will be followed in deciding whether a particular individual is its national or not. See 3 MOORE, DIGEST OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, § 372; HERSHEY, ESSENTIALS OF INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC LAW, § 223. See also Theodore H. Thiesing, "Dual Allegiance in the German Law of Nationality and American Citizenship," 27 YALE L. J. 479, 482. The court, therefore, properly looked into the state of German law. By that law, the plaintiff had lost his German nationality. See BUNDES-GESETZBLATT DES NORDDEUTSCHEN BUNDES, No. 20, vom 1 Juni, 1870, §§ 14 et seq. (For translation, see CITIZENSHIP OF THE UNITED STATES, EXPATRIATION AND PROTECTION ABROAD, 59th Cong., 2d Sess., H. Doc. No. 326, pp. 329–330). Having become a subject of no other sovereign, the plaintiff was a stateless person. Such a condition is recognized by writers on international law. See HALL, INTERNATIONAL LAW, 7 ed., § 74; 1 OPPENHEIM, INTERNATIONAL LAW, 2 ed., §§ 311–312; BORCHARD, DIPLOMATIC PROTECTION OF CITIZENS ABROAD, § 262. But see MORSE, CITIZENSHIP, § 129. The principal case, however, seems to be the first actual decision of a common-law court to accept it. Cf. Ex Parte Weber, [1916] 1 K. B. 280 n, [1916] 1 A. C. 421; Ludlam v. Ludlam, 26 N. Y. 356, 374 et seq. But see Séquestre de Jacob Ull-

Treason Ruling
“We (judges) have no more right to decline the exercise of jurisdiction which is given, than to usurp that which is not given. The one or the other would be treason to the Constitution." -- Cohen v. Virginia, (1821), 6 Wheat. 264 and U.S. v. Will, 449 U.S. 200.
REMEMBER THIS CASE WHEN YOU CHALLENGE THE JURISDICTION AND THE JUDGE TRIES TO REFUSE YOU YOUR RIGHT TO DO SO

All officers, including judges, are liable if they act wholly outside of their jurisdiction or official authority, even where the act is a discretionary one. The officer is then regarded as not acting in the capacity of an officer at all. Robichaud v. Ronan, 351 F.2d 533 (9th Cir., 1965)

All persons are presumed to know the law; If any person acts under any unconstitutional statute, he does so at his own peril; He must take the consequences. 16 Am Jur, 177, 178

The Government of the United States, therefore, can claim no powers which are not granted to it by the Constitution, and the powers actually granted must be such as are expressly given, or given by necessary implication. Buffington v. Day, 78 U.S. 122 (1871)

Demanding a SSN is a violation of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1990 which says an employer cannot specify which documents are acceptable for the I-9 form. Additionally, one of the requirements of that Act is that employers may not discriminate against employees by requesting more or different documents than are required.

If you are a man and you care about the health of your penis, you should avoid ALL fast food, fatty food, sugary and refined food that clogs arteries. Blood had to flow through spongy tissue for the penis to become erect, if this spongy tissue its clogged with plaque, then you will become impotent. Switch to an alkaline diet, become familiar with lifting your own body weight and also get familiar with cardio. If food taste good enough for you to eat yourself into destruction then you should take time to study yourself and ask yourself what really matters to you.

Hunting season is open and will not close for the police to kill more people that claim to be negro, black, colored or african american (dead in the eyes of the law). You and your family need to correct your status and learn who you are. Claiming your nationality will not stop bullets but if you or one of your family members are killed, the remedy will be different in the courtroom.

Negro, Black, Colored, African American killed by police is a civil rights violation.

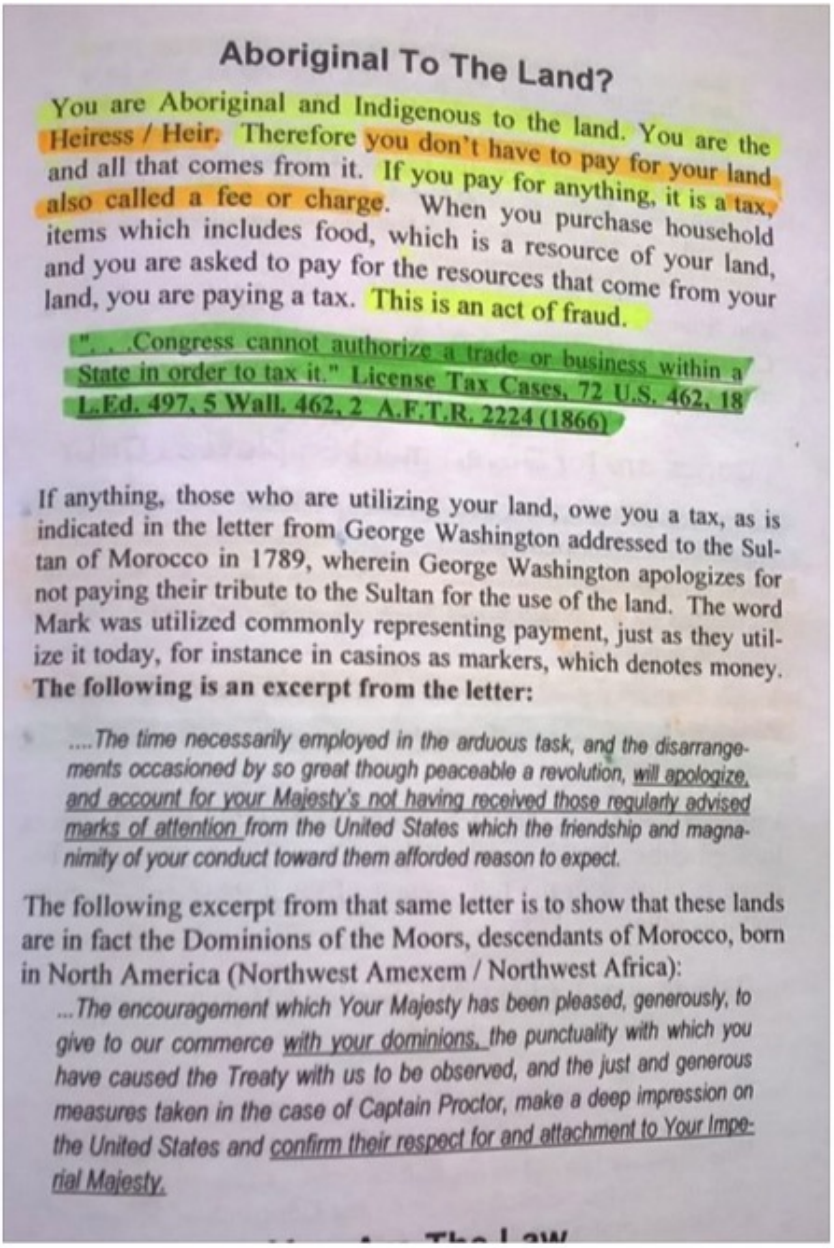
We tried to tell y'all. Soon they coming for their property. 14th amendment citizens. This goes for you naturalized Moors too!



Aboriginal To The Land?

You are Aboriginal and Indigenous to the land. You are the Heiress / Heir. Therefore you don't have to pay for your land and all that comes from it. If you pay for anything, it is a tax, also called a fee or charge. When you purchase household items which includes food, which is a resource of your land, and you are asked to pay for the resources that come from your land, you are paying a tax. This is an act of fraud.

", . .Congress cannot authorize a trade or business within a State in order to tax it." License Tax Cases, 72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866)

If anything, those who are utilizing your land, owe you a tax, as is indicated in the letter from George Washington addressed to the Sultan of Morocco in 1789, wherein George Washington apologizes for not paying their tribute to the Sultan for the use of the land. The word Mark was utilized commonly representing payment, just as they utilize it today, for instance in casinos as markers, which denotes money. The following is an excerpt from the letter:

....The time necessarily employed in the arduous task, and the disarrangements occasioned by so great though peaceable a revolution, will apologize, and account for your Majesty's not having received those regularly advised marks of attention from the United States which the friendship and magnanimity of your conduct toward them afforded reason to expect.

The following excerpt from that same letter is to show that these lands are in fact the Dominions of the Moors, descendants of Morocco, born in North America (Northwest Amexem / Northwest Africa):

...The encouragement which Your Majesty has been pleased, generously, to give to our commerce with your dominions, the punctuality with which you have caused the Treaty with us to be observed, and the just and generous measures taken in the case of Captain Proctor, make a deep impression on the United States and confirm their respect for and attachment to Your Imperial Majesty.

Anyone who doesn't uphold the Constitution commits this.

Treason (n.)
c. 1200, "betraying; betrayal of trust; breach of faith," from Anglo-French treson, from Old French traison "treason, treachery" (11c.; Modern French trahison), from Latin traditionem (nominative traditio) "delivery, surrender, a handing down, a giving up," noun of action from past participle stem of tradere "deliver, hand over," from trans- "over" (see trans-) + dare "to give" (from PIE root *do- "to give"). A doublet of tradition. The Old French form was influenced by the verb trair "betray."

Vpon Thursday it was treason to cry God saue king James king of England, and vppon Friday hye treason not to cry so. [Thomas Dekker, "The Wonderfull Yeare 1603"]

In old English law, high treason is violation by a subject of his allegiance to his sovereign or to the state; distinguished from petit treason, treason against a subject, such as murder of a master by his servant. Constructive treason was a judicial fiction whereby actions carried out without treasonable intent, but found to have the effect of treason, were punished as though they were treason itself. The protection against this accounts for the careful wording of the definition of treason in the U.S. Constitution.

Over a 100 years ago, Prophet Noble Drew Ali set in motion to free the mentally dead who were calling themselves, negros, blacks & coloured's. And after him making the transition, that light was supposed to keep on shining. Yet through the actions of dirty Moors that light was temporarily put out. And it was many after him that knew of him & his mission but refused to step up & continue on. Many of those people we call today "black" leaders.

The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP), says in part:
Article 7
1. Indigenous individuals have the rights to life, physical and mental integrity, liberty and security of person.
2. Indigenous peoples have the collective right to live in freedom, peace, and security as distinct peoples and shall not be subjected to any act of genocide or any other act of violence, including forcibly removing children of the group to another group.

The declaration was adopted by the General Assembly on Thursday, 13 September 2007, by a majority of 144 states in favor, with 4 votes against: those against were Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the United States: all of which had institutionally committed those very crimes against Indigenous Peoples since the arrival of the Albino people.

Lyfe Wyzdom The word black is not why people are murdered. The people said to be black are not murdered because of that word but because of the nature of the people injuring and murdering them. It has absolutely nothing to do with anything political. It has all to do with the nature of their enemy's mind-spirit.

Status of Courts of the District of Columbia.—Through a long course of decisions, the courts of the District of Columbia were regarded as legislative courts upon which Congress could impose nonjudicial functions. In Butterworth v. United States ex rel. Hoe,[96] the Court sustained an act of Congress which conferred revisory powers upon the Supreme Court of the District in patent appeals and made its decisions binding only upon the Commissioner of Patents. Similarly, the Court later sustained the authority of Congress to vest revisory powers in the same court over rates fixed by a public utilities commission.[97] Not long after this the same rule was applied to the revisory powers of the District Supreme Court over orders of the Federal Radio Commission.[98] These rulings were based on the assumption, express or implied, that the courts of the District were legislative courts, created by Congress pursuant to its plenary power to govern the District of Columbia. In dictum in Ex parte Bakelite Corp.,[99] while reviewing the history and analyzing the nature of the legislative courts, the Court stated that the courts of the District were legislative courts.

[94] 370 U.S. at 589 (Justices Douglas and Black). The concurrence thought that the rationale of Bakelite and Williams was based on a significant advisory and reference business of the two courts, which the two Justices now thought insignificant, but what there was of it they thought nonjudicial and the courts should not entertain it. Justice Harlan left that question open. Id. at 583.

[95] Aside from doctrinal matters, Congress in 1982 created the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, giving it, inter alia, the appellate jurisdiction of the Court of Claims and the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals. 96 Stat. 25, title 1, 28 U.S.C. § 41. At the same time Congress created the United States Claims Court, now the United States Court of Federal Claims, as an Article I tribunal, with the trial jurisdiction of the old Court of Claims. 96 Stat. 26, as amended, § 902(a)(1), 106 Stat. 4516, 28 U.S.C. §§ 171–180.

Dear Mr. Randall:

Thank you for writing with your question about Section 3(a) of H.R. 97, legislation I introduced this Congress. Please excuse the delay in my response.

In your letter you asked if Section 3(a) of H.R. 97 defining the word state, and 26 U.S. Code 3121 (e) are the same. I have checked with Legislative Counsel and the Congressional Research Service about the definition. According to these legal experts the definitions are not the same. The term state in 26 U.S. Code 3121 (e) specifically includes only the named U.S. territories and possessions of the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam and American Samoa. In addition, this section of the U.S. Code unlike H.R. 97 also states,

"An individual who is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (but not otherwise a citizen of the United States) shall be considered, for the purposes of this section, as a citizen of the United States."

H.R. 97, section 3(a) does not specifically define the U.S. territories and possessions that would be eligible under this legislation, and therefore is somewhat more expansive. Again, thank you for writing on this issue.

Sincerely,

Barbara

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN XX-XXXXXXX. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, payments, and related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear off stub and return it to us.

Assigning an EIN does not grant tax-exempt status to non-profit organizations. Publication 557, Tax Exempt Status for Your Organization, has details on the application process, as well as information on returns you may need to file. To apply for formal recognition of tax-exempt status, most organizations will need to complete either Form 1023, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or Form 1024, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(a). Submit the completed form, all applicable attachments, and the required user fee to:

The Pension Protection Act of 2006 contains numerous changes to the tax law provisions affecting tax-exempt organizations, including an annual electronic notification requirement (Form 990-N) for organizations not required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ). Additionally, if you are required to file an annual information return, you may be required to file it electronically. Please refer to the Charities & Non-Profits page at www.irs.gov for the most current information on your filing requirements and on provisions of the Pension Protection Act of 2006 that may affect you.

Dear Mrs. Hoverdale:

This is in response to your Privacy Act request dated December 12, 1995.

The Internal Revenue Code is not positive law, it is special Law. It applies to specific persons in the United States who choose to make themselves subject to the requirements of the special laws in the Internal Revenue Code by entering into an employment agreement within the U.S. Government.

The law is that income from sources not effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the U.S. Government is not subject to any tax under Subtitle "A " of The Internal Revenue Code.

This concludes our response to your request.

It is customary for judicial officers, other court employees, and prosecutors to file a bonus against the Cestui Que Vie Trust from court cases; it is also routine procedure for these same persons to intentionally neglect to file the proper tax forms and claim these bonuses/commissions as income, thereby evading the federal income tax as is required of government employees to be paid under 26 U.S. Code 6331(a).
If report the situation and it is found to be True, then YOU get a reward based upon the amount of the taxes that are collectible from the person you report.

Lol "quasi criminal" I literally fell out of my chair in the audience when the Actor as Judge said that phrase to my guinea pig... My guinea pig spun and asked "haha what's that for" I said"there's no such thing it's noncriminal" The Actor as Judge said if I do it another time I'd be held in contempt... So I had to ask "is that criminal or civil or 'quasi criminal' contempt? haha" he had the baal-of (bailiff) escort me out haha😂 twenty years; and those who hold them as wards should give over to them all the fiefs which came under their control by reason of wardship, provided they have not lost anything by judicial process. ... When heirs pass out the condition of wardship, the lords shall not impose on them any reliefs for their fiefs, for the profits of wardship shall be reckoned in place of relief. ... When a female ward reaches the proper age to marry, she should be married by the advice and consent of her relatives and friends, according as the nobility of her ancestry and value of her fief may require; and upon her marriage the fief which has been held in guardianship should be given over to her. A woman cannot be freed from wardship except by marriage. ... The fiefs of those who are under wardship should be cared for attentively by their lords, who are entitled to receive the produce and profits.[21]

Among the preceding regulations it was stated that the obligation of paying relief was not binding on the ward. The ordinary heir, however, was expected to pay a certain amount of money to the lord when the fief was officially transferred to him. The reason for this custom is found rooted in the practice of granting the "beneficium". When a son sought the fief of his deceased father, it was considered a special favor of the lord to allow the succession very appropriate example. The legal profession's labor union, the Bar Association, was established immediately after the Civil War to substitute a system of general slavery to replace the old system of black slavery, by guaranteeing a monopoly of the courts for attorneys, judges and municipal corporations (city, county, state). This labor union, the Bar Association, has forbidden anyone but union (Bar) attorneys to give legal advice, and has prevented anyone from being assisted in court by a non-union lawyer or by a non-lawyer, thus converting the courts into closed union shops. This corresponds to pre-Civil War United States wherein blacks were not taught to read and were not allowed to get a public education lest they become strong enough persons to speak out against their repression and overthrow their slavemasters.
